Case No. 3:13-cr-00097-SLG-JDR

2nd MOTION FOR BAIL REVIEW HEARING

Comes Now, Jason Jayavarman, by and through his attorney of record, Rex Lamont Butler & Associates, Inc., P.C., and, pursuant to 18 USC 3142, respectfully moves and petitions this Honorable Court to schedule a bail review hearing in the case captioned above. Mr. Jayavarman is proposing two (2) third party candidates. The first candidate, Bradley Davis has completed an application and his information has been previously provided to both the United States Probation and Pretrial Services Office, as well as to the United States Attorney's Office, and a copy of that application is being attached hereto. The second applicant is being vetted at this time and his information shall be forwarded to all the parties upon completion. A written proposal from Alaska Pretrial Services, the number one electronic monitoring company in the state of Alaska, is anticipated in our office on or about Tuesday, November 12, 2013, and this office shall forward a copy of the proposal upon receipt.

Mr. Jayavarman is respectfully requesting he be released to Mr. Davis, a former security officer, on a 24-hour a day basis, while living at his residence and wearing a titanium ankle bracelet, which will be monitored through Alaska Pretrial Services.

Respectfully dated this 8th day of November, 2013, in Anchorage, Alaska.
